Abstract: An area based technique for matching fiducial marks in digital images is presented. A hierarchical method is used to find the position of the fiducial mark in the image; subpixel estimation based on the approximation of the cross correlation function by a polynomial surface gives results with an accuracy of ±1/4 pixel. A concept for automatical determination of approximate values based on the Hough-Transform is introduced.